If you are unsatisfied with the claim's decision of Elegance Plyquet regarding the wood flooring you have purchased from your dealer, there may be a variety of reasons why this may be the case.

Our policy for handling these complaints is through an un-biased, third-party certified flooring inspection. You may retain a certified flooring inspector with the National Institute of Certified Floorcovering Inspector. Upon the results of the inspection, ElegancePlyquet will reimburse you for the cost of the inspection plus flooring if the product you received from us is found to be inferior or defective and not in accordance to the standards of the manufacturer or NICFI rulings. Elegance Plyquet cannot be held responsible for improper storage/handling after release from our warehouse including installation deficiencies, environmental changes, and other natural causes found in the inspection.

Note: Elegance Plyquet puts every plank of flooring through strict quality control in every step of our process. Per industry standards, this warranty does not cover any defects unless the square footage of such defects exceeds 5% of the total square footage of your purchased floor.
